

Three new Clas Ohlson stores now confirmed

It has now been confirmed that Clas Ohlson will open three more stores this year. This means that Clas Ohlson currently has thirteen store openings that are planned to take place during the calendar year 2024.

The stores that are now confirmed will open in Lidingö Centrum just outside Stockholm, Burlöv Center outside Malmö and in the city centre of Lund in southern Sweden.

"It feels fantastic to start the year with three new store contracts. The new stores will make us even more accessible, and we know that we have been in demand for a long time in both the city centre of Lund and on Lidingö. We also look forward to coming back to Burlöv where we closed our store in 2020 and where the centre has since then has had a very positive development," says Andreas Helgesson, Country Operations Manager.

The stores in Lund and on Lidingö will have a sales area of 634 square metres and 679 square metres respectively, while the store in Burlöv Center will be 1156 square metres.

"We will offer Clas Ohlson's entire broad and affordable range, including products in construction, lighting, storage and products for the connected home," says Andreas Helgesson.

In total, Clas Ohlson now has thirteen planned store openings during the calendar year 2024, including new stores in Helsingborg, Sundsvall and in the centre of Oslo.
