

Clas Ohlson's new store in Husnes Hordaland, Norway, now opened

Earlier today, Clas Ohlson opened a new store in the shopping centre Husnes Storsenter in Norway.

Husnes Storsenter is one of the main shopping centres in the Sunnhordland district, attracting customers from large part of the region. Regional manager Pål Eilertsen is happy to open yet another store in Western Norway.

“We have had our eyes on Husnes for some years now. This is one of the biggest shopping centres in the area, and people travel from far away to shop here. To be here today and see all our new customers entering the store at opening is a great experience,” says Pål Eilertsen.

Clas Ohlson's new store in Husnes has a retail space of approximately 900 square meters and a catchment area of 22,000 residents and 2,000 cabins.

*Clas Ohlson was founded in 1918 as a mail order business based in Insjön, Sweden. This year, we are celebrating 100 years as a business with customers in five markets, more than 4,800 co-workers and annual sales of approximately 8 billion SEK. Our share is listed on Nasdaq Stockholm. A lot has happened since the start in 1918, but one thing has remained the same over the years; that we want to help and inspire people to improve their everyday lives by offering smart, simple, practical solutions at attractive prices.
